The sacrament of Marriage

I thought world marriage day was this Sunday, being so close to Valentine's Day, but alas, I was off by a week. It was last Sunday. Nevertheless, I would like to write a word or two about the sacrament of marriage. Marriage, as a cultural, social, religious and civic institution has changed over the centuries, and certainly in the past fifty years. It has had various norms and mores attached to it. Essentially, it is a contract binding two people (or families) together in a common bond.

In the Catholic Church, marriage is one of the seven Sacraments. Remember, that a sacrament is an outward sign, instituted by Christ, that brings about the grace which it signifies. When considering marriage in this light, it is not a contract but rather a covenant. Contracts can be dissolved for various reasons or run out the clock if set according to a time limit. A covenant, on the other hand, is indissoluble. It is permanent.

The permanence of the Sacrament of Marriage is brought about by the exchange of consent between a baptized man and a baptized woman who are both free to marry, that is, without any hindrance or impediments. (An example of impediment is that one of them is secretly married or is not the person he/she claims to be). The exchange of consent happens when the bride and groom make solemn vows to God that they will be espoused to each other for the rest of their lives. This points to the covenant the God established with His people in Christ. Not only does the marriage point to the covenant, the exchange of consent causes the grace or the bond of covenant to happen. Another way to think of this, a sacramental marriage (in the ideal sense) gives the world an insight as to how God loves His people. I write those words knowing full well that no marriage is perfect or ideal. There are tensions and trials and doubts. As Mother Therese said, God asks us to be faithful, not successful.

There are many Catholic couples who are civilly married, though not sacramentally married. I encourage you to consider receiving the Sacrament of Marriage. Just because you did not marry in the Church does not mean that you cannot be married in the Church. It is rather simple. Speak with Fr. Kevin or myself. We are very happy to help! Why not receive the help of God's grace?

Lent

Wednesday begins Lent. (In the seminary we always said Lent begins...again!) It's worth noting that Lent always begins in winter and always ends in spring. That structure of the calendar itself reflects the paschal mystery: In Christ God brings forth life from death. Please note the schedule for Ash Wednesday. It is slightly different than last year because of school vacation. Let these weeks be a time of spiritual renewal by practicing the disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Vatican II

A mini course for the collaborative

At the beginning of the calendar year, Pope Leo encouraged us to take a fresh look at the teachings of the Second Vatican Council. I will be offering a mini course on these teachings on the Saturday mornings of Lent beginning this coming Saturday, February 21 at 9:00 – 10:15 in St. Clare Parish Hall.

We will look at what lead to the council as well as the major documents of the council. You need not go to all of them, as each class will begin with a review of what has already been covered. I will guide you through a reading of parts of the major documents, however, you do not need to read the documents in order to participate in the class. It is meant to be informal and generate some good discussion about our faith.

The following is the Collaborative schedule for the Distribution of ashes for THIS Wednesday, February 18, 2026:

St. Francis

6:15AM	Prayer Service
7:00AM	Mass
12:10PM	Mass

St. Clare

9:00AM	Mass
6:00PM	Mass

Please pick up a copy of the Lenten Schedule for the Braintree Catholic Collaborative at the church exits.

Stay tuned for more information regarding our 3rd Annual St. Patrick's Day Dinner to be held on Saturday, March 14 at St. Francis of Assisi. Tickets are $35 and will be on sale soon.

From
Deacon Joe MacDonald

In today's Gospel Jesus describes His very close, one might say intimate, relationship with the Law and the Prophets. In fact, He tells us that He is the fulfillment of the Law. From this starting point Jesus makes some bold statements.

He begins by noting some of the Ten Commandments given to Moses by God. God Himself gave the Law and no one except God can add or subtract from it. He quotes the Fifth Commandment: "You have heard it said, 'You shall not kill.'" Who said it? God! Jesus goes a step further. "But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgement" He goes even further and instructs us not to call anyone "Raqa" which means empty headed or a dimwit. Nor are you to call anyone a fool. Jesus is looking not just at murder but at its root cause, what's in the heart. Anger is the first step toward murder. He takes it a step further, don't say anything that hurts another person, insults them or harms (kills) their reputation. Things like gossip are prohibited. To Jesus all these things are murderous because it harms people.

Jesus continues by telling us that if we come to the altar and remember that someone has something against you go and be reconciled. The penitential rite we use at Mass has its origins in this passage.

Then, Jesus takes aim at the Sixth Commandment: "You shall not commit adultery." But He begins with the law about divorce. Just so we understand this it was the husband who could seek a divorce not the wife. She really had no legal standing in that society. It sounds strange that He would say that if you divorce your wife, it causes her to commit adultery. How would it cause her to commit adultery. In that society a woman could not survive apart from her husband. She would have no means of support. She would either have to remarry or turn to prostitution. And any man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Jesus kind of levels the playing field a little so that both men and women share equally in the sin.

He moves on to the Eighth Commandment about lying or bearing false witness. Don't swear by God or Heaven or earth or even your own head. Let your "yes" mean "yes" and your "no" mean "no." Just be honest.

What is the point of Jesus adding these things to the Law? He wants us to know that it's what is in our hearts that leads us to sin. Anger leads to murder. Lust leads to adultery. Greed leads us to steal. All these things come from within and are the things we need to take control of, with God's, help to avoid sin.

With Lent rapidly approaching we can look to the Psalm for Ash Wednesday – Psalm 51 for guidance. Here is just one verse that we can take to prayer over and over again during the coming weeks.

A clean heart create for me, God; renew within me a steadfast spirit. (Psalm 51:12)

I'd like to add one more thing. We already said that God alone is the law giver. Jesus is not just the fulfillment of the law, but He is also the law giver. In this Gospel passage Jesus makes Himself to be equal to God, something deemed as blasphemy, and this would get him in trouble, all kinds of trouble, with the Jewish authorities.

As we learn from Saint John's Gospel, Jesus is the Word made Flesh. He is God. So, He had every right to add to the law of Moses not just because he could, but for our benefit Everything Jesus did was for us. He added these things to the law so that we might come to recognize and confront those things we harbor in our own hearts that lead us to sin. And if we find ourselves falling into sin, maybe by gossiping, or falling into anger or even something more serious God has given us a remedy – the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Not only is it a place of forgiveness and healing but also a source of grace that will strengthen us to avoid sin in the future. Confessions are heard at St. Francis from 12:30 to 1:130 on Saturdays and at Saint Clare on Saturdays after the 8:00 AM Mass.

"Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner." (the Jesus prayer)

Next week is Ash Wednesday!

The ashes that are placed on our foreheads remind us to "remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." This helps us to remember how important it is to live in a loving and kind way. The ashes represent:

- Saying I'm sorry - everyone makes mistakes, and we can ask God for forgiveness.
- A fresh start - God helps us try again and make better choices.
- Being humble - The ashes remind us that we are human and need God's help.
- Preparing for Easter – Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, a time to grow closer to Jesus.

If you still have palms from last year, you can bring them to church. There are baskets to place them in – remember that the ashes from Ash Wednesday come from burning the Palms from Palm Sunday!

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of Lent, so remember to think about the three things we do during this time of preparation – PRAY – FAST – GIVE.

If you don't have a "Lent in a Bag" kit there are some in the RE Hall you can take. For every week of Lent there is a different colored paper to write down what extra prayers you will say, what food or activity you will give up, and how you will give to others that week. Doing these things helps us to grow closer to Jesus and prepare for Easter!

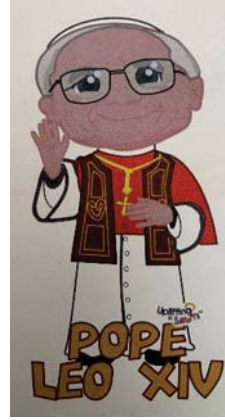

HALF DAY HANGOUT!! –

Thursday February 26 1:00-4:00

Join us in the St. Clare RE Hall after the school early release. Bring lunch and a drink, and we will watch a video and play games. The kids will work on a Lenten display for the churches. Email Karen Lane klane@sfab.org if your child would like to attend.

WHERE IS FLAT LEO??

Do you know the story of Flat Stanley? He is a boy who becomes flat after a bulletin board falls on him. He uses his unique situation to embark on adventures by mailing himself to interesting places!

We are going to take some photos with Flat Leo around the churches and mail the pictures and a Flat Leo to kids in RE classes at parishes all around the US, and ask them to email a picture of them with Flat Leo to us! Then we will track the adventures of Leo on a map in the RE Hall!

If anyone has friends or family in a parish in another state, feel free to email the information to Karen Lane for our project! klane@sfab.org.

Summer Camp registrations are starting! Save the week of July 13-17 to join us for VBS! Please email Karen Lane at klane@sfab.org if your child is interested!

Many thanks to all who attended our Women's Group gathering last weekend! We are working on compiling all the great ideas that were discussed and will meet again to organize activities. The next two meetings will be:

Saturday, February 28 - 10:30 in the St. Clare Church Hall

FAITH FACTS

Psalm 119 is the longest psalm by far in the psalter. It praises God for giving such splendid laws and instruction for people to live by. The poem is an acrostic; its twenty-two stanzas (of eight verses each) are in the order of the Hebrew alphabet. Each of the eight verses within a stanza begins with the same letter. Each verse contains one word for "instruction." The nine words for "instruction" in the translation are: law, edict, command, precept, word, utterance, way, decree and teaching.
