More on the Mass

During the weeks of summer, I'll use this bulletin column to discuss the Mass in terms of what changes were brought about by the Second Vatican Council in the 1960's. As mentioned last week, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy known as Sacrosanctum Concilium initiated a renewed theology of the Eucharist. Given that most Catholics today are not familiar with the Mass prior to the Second Vatican Council, I thought it would be good to focus this week on how Mass was celebrated up until that time. I, for one, have no recollection of Mass being celebrated in any other way than it is today.

In 1570, Pope Pius V promulgated a mandate that Mass throughout the world was to be celebrated in a uniform way. This was in the years following the Protestant Reformation. Mass was celebrated using a number of different rites depending where in the world you were. With the intention of uniting the Church in the aftershocks of the Reformation, there was an Eccumenical Council during the years 1569/70. From that came the Roman Rite which was to be used throughout the entire Church. This was quite radical at the time because it meant that Mass was to be celebrated in Latin, a language which most people did not speak. Nevertheless, the thinking was that celebrating Mass in a uniform way would keep the Catholic Church from fracturing further.

Important for us to appreciate is that from 1570 until 1962, Mass was celebrated in the exact same way in every Catholic Church throughout the world. For those who grew up with Mass in Latin, the shift in the 1960's must have been quite harsh! Not only was Mass the same everywhere, but it was the one constant in the lives of Catholics in an ever changing world. Think about world wars, advancement of science and psychology, the advent of radio and television. The world was in a constant state of change. But the Mass was constant. It conveyed a God who was stable and strong.

A few things to know about the Mass from the Council of Trent. It is now referred to as the Tridentine Mass (Tridentine meaning that which comes from Trent) or Mass in the Extraordinary Form. As stated the entire Mass was in Latin, except for a few prayers that were in Greek or Hebrew. Obviously people didn't speak Latin so they relied on altar boys to make the responses on their behalf. When celebrating the Mass, the priest was ad orientum, meaning, he faced east thus, with his back to the people. There was only a one-year cycle of Scripture readings utilizing only 15% of the Bible. The altar was set off by an altar rail, which no one crossed (except altar servers and cleaners). Communion was received whilst kneeling at the altar rail and only on the tongue. In preparation for receiving Holy Communion, you had to fast from food and drink from midnight.

The focus of the Tridentine Mass was on the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. It was the priest's Mass, which he offered on behalf of the people as well as himself. Following the rubrics was emphasized. In fact not following the rubrics was a matter for Confession for the priest. Lay people were obliged to "hear" the Mass said. For many years, receiving Holy Communion was not emphasized. In fact, at any given Mass a good number of people did not receive because they did not keep the fast or they did not go to Confession the day before.

Fr Kevin update

Fr Kevin received an official letter from the Archbishop stating that his report date for his new assignment as pastor of St. Joseph Parish, Malden is Tuesday, September 15. Therefore, his last Mass will be here on Sunday, September 13.

Our quest awaits us at Vacation Bible School Next week! We will use our imagination and prepare to become brave explorers as we set out on a quest to discover God's Kingdom. Together we'll learn what it means to follow Jesus, live with kindness and courage, and help build God's Kingdom every day.

The adventure is about to begin—we can't wait to see you at Kingdom Quest!

Flat Leo has been busy! We have heard from a few more states and hope to eventually hear from all 50 (12 down, 38 to go!) It is fun to see the pictures they take in their schools and parishes – they are certainly giving Flat Leo lots of wonderful adventures!

Flat Leo also joined our parish pilgrims on their travels to Italy this Spring, and some of their pictures are in the RE hall as well. We are hoping to see more of Flat Leo's adventures right here in and around Braintree – there are still Flat Leo's available in the RE Hall for anyone to take – send your pictures to klane@sfab.org to be added to the display!

Registration for Religious Education Classes for the 2026-2027 year is open! Scan the QR code below to open the registration form. (A link to the form can also be found on the Faith Formation page of the Collaborative website at <https://braintreecatholic.org/faith-formation/>).

In order to make the process a little easier, you can check on “returning family” at the top to use information from last year's form so you only need to fill in information that has changed since last year (i.e. student grade, session day, emergency contact, etc.) Class schedules will be posted on the Faith Formation page of the website (see address above) in early August. Email klane@sfab.org for more information or any questions.

The Bible tells us "Do not be afraid" at least 100 times in one form or another. And yet Scripture also tells us that "fear of the Lord is the beginning of all wisdom." Is there a contradiction here?

Without a doubt, fear of the Lord is one of those things that people have the most trouble wrapping their heads around. Certainly, the Greek word we translate as "fear" can mean "to be afraid." But in the context of knowing God it can and should be translated to mean "being in awe" of the divine.

If fear of the Lord meant to be afraid of God then our faith would be built upon a God who is not love but a god of vengeance. It's as though God would be waiting for us to fail, to screw up so that he could drop the hammer on us as it were. Would the God who gave up his only Son for our sake possibly take pleasure in our punishment or demise? Would the God, who hears the cry of the poor, use threats to get his children to do the right thing?

In the final scenes of the movie "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" just when the spaceship appears, the main character, Roy Neary, doesn't show fear at all. He is awestruck, even joyful. He is drawn to it and wants to be part of it – be one with it.

Fear of the Lord, I think, is something like that.

Fear of the Lord is being able to stand awestruck, yet unafraid before the immensity of the divine persons and be drawn into the light of eternal love. It is to be touched in such a way that we don't cower in fear or hide our faces in shame but we are drawn joyfully closer and closer until in the end we find our ultimate peace and life in the One who loved us from all eternity.

The St. Francis of Assisi Offertory envelopes beginning July 12th will most likely be late again this mailing. Please use one of the envelopes available in the church or your own envelope with your name on the front. Because of this ongoing issue we have switched to a new provider. The change will take effect beginning with the September/October envelope mailing. We apologize for the inconvenience.

The elevator at St. Clare has been repaired. However it can not be used until it has been inspected by the state.

July 12: Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel, we hear the story of the sower and we know that "some seed fell on rich soil, and produce fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirty fold."

This week by putting a gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that together they will produce fruit a hundred fold.

FOOD COLLECTION SUNDAY is next weekend, June 20-21. Thank you to everyone who so faithfully supports our pantry. We are in need of the following items: paper towels, toilet paper, tooth paste and tooth brushes. However, we are grateful for anything you wish to donate. If you prefer not to shop, please read below to learn how you can help. Pantry donations can also be dropped off at the Collaborative office during normal business hours (M-F 9-4). Blue envelopes are in holders on the back inside wall of the church. Please use them for your cash, check (written to St. Vincent DePaul with SFA on the memo line), or gift card—and place them into the collection basket or through the rectory mail slot.

REST IN PEACE

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

July 12 ~ Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

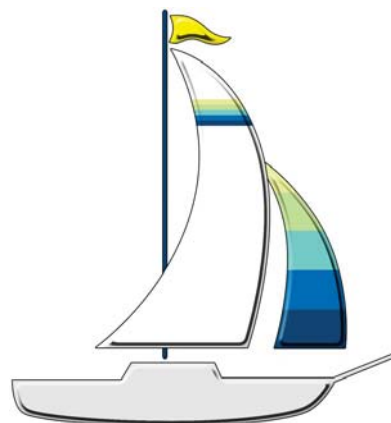

Our readings present the image of God's word being sown as seeds upon field. "A Sower went out to sow...." Listen to these readings with the mind and heart of an evangelizer. How receptive are you to the seed – God's word - that has been sown in your heart? Do you believe that with God's grace, that word will bear fruit in your own life and that it has the power to touch the life of another and perhaps draw them closer to Jesus? Make it a priority this week to spend ten minutes reading some Scripture. As you do that, pray that the word of God you have read will bear fruit as God intends.
