NOW IN OUR PARISH

Join your fellow [38] parishioners who have already downloaded Donum and the [29] who have set up recurring giving!

If you haven't yet, download the app and enroll in recurring giving to provide steady support for our ministries.

A safe, secure, and convenient way to support your parish - anytime, anywhere.

A warm word of welcome to Bishop Peter Uglietto who is with us at the special-timed 10:30 Mass at St. Francis this Sunday for the celebration of the 800th anniversary of the death of our patron, Saint Francis of Assisi. Bp. Uglietto is one of the auxiliary bishops of the Archdiocese. For nine years he was the vicar general under Cardinal O'Malley. During that time, I was personnel director and worked very closely with him. He is a special friend indeed. I am delighted to have him here for this occasion!

Wednesday of this week is the Feast of the Holy Rosary. The Rosary has been a method of prayer for centuries, invoking the holy name of the Blessed Mother to intercede to Her Son on our behalf. Its structure takes the forms of "decades" or litanies of the Hail Mary Prayer whilst meditating on mysteries in the life of Christ and Her life. I am delighted that we have a group of parishioners who gather each Monday evening at 6:45 in St. Francis Church to recite the Rosary for the intentions of the collaborative and the universal Church. Everyone is most welcome.

Given that the Rosary features so prominently during this month, October has become a particular time to pray for the dignity of the human person. The term "pro-life" has become a political battle cry and for many, associated with the issue of abortion. To be pro-life is a way of living that embraces the dignity of each and every human person. For many generations, personhood has been pushed into the political sphere meaning that we have allowed the state to qualify what is and what is not a person. At what point in human development is a person a person? At what point in a life does personhood end? Such questions beg another important question: how do we determine which persons are more important than others? My experience is that most of us do not want to engage in such discussions because there are so many consequences to our answers.

The teaching of the Church, based on the mystery of the Incarnation (God becoming human in Jesus Christ) and the proclamation of the Gospel is that personhood, which is a philosophical distinction, is presumed to be from the moment of conception. It concludes with natural death.

What is a Catholic to do when he/she does not hold this belief or struggles with it? Struggling can be a good thing in that it indicates a desire for truth. I would suggest taking the time to learn more about our faith's history with such questions. The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a good starting place. Along with a clear statement of what the Church believes, it also offers citations from Sacred Scripture and early and contemporary writings which will expand the context of our beliefs. By way of suggestion, some spiritual direction may also be of help. Fr. Agnel, Sr. Georgeanne and myself all have training in spiritual direction and would be happy to meet with anyone who is "struggling" with such matters. Just give us a call.

Our monthly Community Meal will be held on Wednesday evening at 5:30 in St. Francis Parish Hall. I want to acknowledge the work of our many volunteers who make such a ministry possible.

Religious Education classes for children and youth have begun! It is not too late to register. Call the religious office at 781-848-7481 to enroll. Remember, Confirmation classes have moved to the 7th and 8th grade! Those in high school who wish to receive the sacrament of Confirmation are most welcome to do so. Speak with Mrs. Lane, Fr. Agnel or myself and we will help to figure out the best method of preparation.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This year our Religious Education theme is “Journey With Jesus!” It was wonderful seeing all the familiar faces returning and meeting new friends! While the students talked about their summer vacations and the new school year, they decorated backpacks for the bulletin board.

The catechists were just as excited to return and join in the fun!

The students wrote what they are excited about for the new RE year. Here are some of the things that were written:

- seeing my friends, meeting new friends
- my first communion, wearing a white dress
- learning about the holy bread at Mass
- movie nights, half day hangouts
- learning about God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit
- the Christmas Pageant
- learning about saints and Heaven
- crafts, games, stories

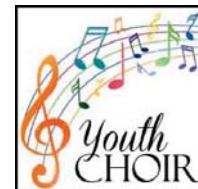

There are some important parent meetings coming up:

- ⇒ For parents of students in the First Communion classes, there will be meetings at St. Clare Church on Sunday, October 25 at 11:15am and Tuesday, October 27 at 7:00pm. Please plan to attend one.
- ⇒ For parents of students in the Confirmation program, there will be a meeting for students and parents at St. Francis Church on Sunday, November 1 at 4:30pm.

Some RE Reminders:

- * The door for K-6 drop off and pick up is near the back of St. Clare church on the side of the main parking lot.
- * The door must remain locked during classes. Please consider signing up to be a door monitor to help keep our kids safe. You can sign up for one day, once a month, or more. There will be a signup sheet for door monitors downstairs when you drop off your kids.
- * The registration form and RE schedules can be found on the Faith Formation page of the Collaborative website at <https://braintreecatholic.org/faith-formation/>
Email klane@sfab.org for more information or any questions.

Join the Youth Choir at the 10:15 Mass each Sunday at St. Clare!

All students grade K-8 are welcome! We meet in the RE Hall at 9:30 to rehearse and then go up to Mass together at 10:15 (that gives Mom and Dad some time to go for a walk, have a cup of coffee, or enjoy some quiet time in the church.) Email Karen Lane at klane@sfab.org with any questions.

From
Deacon Joe MacDonald

Since this Sunday we celebrate the auspicious occasion of the 800th anniversary of the death of Saint Francis I thought I would repeat an article about him I wrote back in May.

Continuing with my experiences while on pilgrimage in Italy I will turn my attention to Assisi, an important location for both of our parishes, Saint Francis and Saint Clare.

I think that most of us know very little about Saint Francis, about his youth, his conversion story and the founding of the Franciscan order. When most of us think of Saint Francis we often recall his great love for animals. Every year in our own collaborative we celebrate the blessing of animals as a concrete way to remember Francis through our own love of animals. In fact, it wasn't just animals that he loved but all of God's creation and praised God for all of it which we see in his "Canticle of the Sun." It is the first poem written in the Italian vernacular. But the life of Saint Francis is much more than this. He wasn't just a twelfth century "flower child."

He was born around 1182 to a wealthy cloth merchant in Assisi. Most parents want their child to grow up in a better situation than they did. And so, it was his father's great desire that he would grow up and use his wealth to marry into nobility. Francis probably thought this was a pretty good idea himself as he wanted to become a knight and find glory in battle. In his youth he was known to be something of a party animal and would frequently be seen in the town square drinking wine and carousing with his friends. Today, we might find many children of the rich and famous doing the same thing.

Francis soon got his chance to make a name for himself in battle. Assisi and Perugia were locked in a bitter rivalry when in 1202 at around the age of 20, he joined Assisi forces to attack Perugia in the Battle of Collestrada. Things did not go the way he expected. Assisi lost the battle and Francis was captured and spent a year as a prisoner of war. This disillusionment helped shape the course of his future life. He stopped being so concerned with fame and riches and began to look toward the spiritual.

The turning point came while he was riding his horse down the road and noticed a leper walking toward him. Usually he, like everyone else, would keep their distance, not even looking at the poor man. He must have been inspired by the Holy Spirit but this time he rode right toward the leper, got off his horse, embraced the man and kissed him. Later, Francis came to realize that it wasn't a leper but the Lord Himself that he had embraced and Later, Francis came to realize that it wasn't a leper but the Lord Himself that he had embraced and kissed.

"And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.'" (Matthew 25:40)

There was an incident, from which we probably get our association of Francis and animals. There was a wolf that was terrorizing Assisi. Francis went out and found the wolf and as the story is told, spoke to the animal. The wolf didn't want to terrorize anyone it was just hungry. Francis suggested that if the people of the town left something outside their door for the wolf to eat, he would leave the people and their livestock in peace. The wolf agreed and promised to protect the city. How could that happen? Was it a Dr. Dolittle moment? Wolves can't actually speak. It certainly must have been some kind of supernatural gift granted at the moment so that two created creatures, Francis and the wolf, could come to understand each other. It was another moment of peacemaking brought about by God Himself.

There are so many aspects and stories to tell about Saint Francis, but I can't describe all of them here. Many books have been written about him. You might want to take some time to read some of these and explore his life yourselves in more detail.

With limited space in the bulletin, I've included the poem mentioned about on my blog you can find it at A Cigar with God 2.0: May 2026

AN EVENING WITH ARTIE BOYLE

The Braintree Catholic Collaborative Women's Group is inviting ALL (Women, Men, Families) to attend the evening talk with Artie Boyle on October 7th at 7PM in the Saint Francis CHURCH. Since this date is the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, we will open the church at 6:30PM for Rosary prior to his talk.

Artie is the author of "Six Months to Live". Devastated with a terminal cancer diagnosis, Artie and friends dared to look for a miracle. Twenty five years ago, they journeyed to Medjugorje in Croatia in search of healing. Upon return, the cancer was gone completely; and his doctors had no explanation. We will listen as Artie relates not only his miraculous healing but his spiritual journey and the hope and inspiration he offers.

Scriptural ROSARY and the Divine Mercy Chaplet will begin on 9/14 at 6:45pm at SFA. We are looking for new leaders and readers to volunteer for this prayer ministry as going forward we will be having it on EVERY MONDAY throughout the year. Please contact Lisa at LBERRARDI28@verizon.net to be included in the rotation.

Braintree Catholic Collaborative Bereavement Support Group—Are you grieving the loss of someone close to you? If you are interested in talking about your grief and need support in your grief healing, we are again beginning our bereavement classes on Saturday, October 10, 2026 at St. Francis of Assisi Church Hall. The hour-long meeting will help you bring your suffering to the Lord and also allow you to know others who are going through something similar. Meetings will meet weekly from 10:30—11:30AM. No sign-up or commitment, just a place to come and find comfort.

"What we once enjoyed and deeply loved we can never lose, for all that we loved deeply becomes part of us."

Helen Keller

Knights of Columbus—The weekend of October 17th-18th member knights will hand out tootsie rolls and collect donations to support God's special children. Funds collected will provide assistance to the handicapped, and promote support for children and families with special needs.

October 4—27th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The good news of this Gospel is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest.

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

Pantry donations can be dropped off at the Collaborative office during normal business hours (M-T 9-4; and F 9-1). Blue envelopes are in holders on the back inside wall of the church. Please use them for your cash, check (written to St. Vincent DePaul with SFA on the memo line), or gift card—and place them into the collection basket or through the rectory mail slot.
